My dear Sir,

In returning File No. 234 dated the 14th October 1925, I am directed to say that it would have been better and more appropriate if the Government Order had been worded as follows :-

" His Highness the Maharaja is pleased .. etc."

His Highness would like this form to be adopted in future in such cases.

Yours sincerely,

With reference to the letter dated 17th instant from the Private Secretary to His Highness to the Dewan regarding the wording of the G.O. issued by Government about the selection of a successor to the Sri Parakala Swami [illegible], I may be permitted to explain that the order is based on that issued on the occasion of the nomination of the late Swamigalu in November 1918. As in this order, the words "the Government of His Highness" had been used, the same wording was adopted; and instead of the word "nomination" the word "selection" was used as there was no nomination of this successor by the late Swami, as was the case on the last occasion.

The instructions contained in the Private Secretary's letter will be noted for future guidance as ordered by His Highness.
